ORDER:

In the reference first read above, after examining the circumstances prevailing in Cooperative Credit Societies, the Government in the interest of Cooperative movement as well as in public interest, issued orders under Section 123 of the APCS Act, 1964 by exempting all the Cooperative Credit Societies in the State from the provision of Section 115-D (16)(a) of APCS Act, 1964. The Government also directed the Commissioner for Cooperation & Registrar of Cooperative Societies vide references second to fourth read above to take necessary action as per the powers vested with the Registrar of Cooperative Societies for appointment of Persons-In-Charge under Section 32 (7)(a)(i) of the APCS Act, 1964 from amongst the eligible members of respective Primary Agricultural Coop. Credit Societies (PACS) and the District Coop. Central Banks (DCCB) as directed therein for a period of Six (6) months immediately after the expiry of their respective term or till the elections are conducted whichever is earlier. Accordingly, the Persons-In-Charge (PIC) were appointed to the PACS and DCCBs by the respective Authorities as per the powers delegated to them under Section 32(7)(a)(i) of the APCS Act, 1964.

2. On expiry of the term of the PICs appointed and after careful examination of the circumstances submitted therein by the CC & RCS vide reference fifth read above, the Government in exercise of the powers vested under the provision of Section 32(7)(a)(i) of the APCS Act, 1964 issued orders vide reference sixth read above extending the term of the existing Persons-In-Charge of such PACS where they were appointed in response to the orders of the Government vide references first and second read above and to all the DCCBs in the State for a further period upto 30.07.2020 or till the conduct of elections, whichever is earlier from the date immediately after expiry of their respective term, subject to the satisfaction of their credentials. In regard to APCOB, vide reference seventh read above, orders were issued extending the term of the CC&RCS as Official Person-In-Charge under Section 32(7)(a)(i) of the APCS Act, 1964 for a further period up to 30.07.2020 or till conduct of elections whichever is earlier. As such, the term of the existing Persons-In-Charge (PICs) of such PACSs, DCCBs and APCOB is going to expire by 30.07.2020. The same was reported by the CC&RCS, AP., Guntur vide reference eighth read above, and requested to issue necessary orders.

(PTO)

3. In the above circumstances and keeping in view of the prevailing Covid 19 pandemic situation, initiation of the election process at present is not desirable as the viral cases are on the rise. Therefore, the Government after careful examination of the entire matter and in exercise of the powers vested under the provisions of Section 32 (7)(a)(i) of the APCS Act, 1964 hereby order to extend the term of the existing Person-In-Charge Committee of such PACS where they were appointed in response to the orders of the Government vide references first, second and sixth read above and to all the DCCBs in the State for a further period of six months, i.e. upto 30.01.2021 or till the conduct of elections and the elected Committee assumes charge, whichever is earlier, from the date immediately after expiry of their respective term, subject to the satisfaction of their credential and also extend the term of the CC&RCS as Official PIC to the APCOB, Vijayawada under Section 32 (7)(a)(i) of the APCS Act, 1964 for a further period of six months from 31.07.2020 to 30.01.2021 or till the conduct of elections and the elected Committee assumes charge, whichever is earlier.

4. The Commissioner for Cooperation & Registrar of Cooperative Societies, A.P., Guntur shall take necessary action in the matter accordingly.
